

Using VRS has really helped making my life much easier and more effective and feeling more at the same level as other hearing people. I believe it has made more people motivated to do something with their life by being able to use VRS and speak their own natural language which has made things go more smoothly.